

Amentum's growing team

Stephan Rihm joined Amentum on 16th June from Macquarie Aviation Capital Finance where he was VP Commercial and Contracts, prior to which he spent 5 years with MTU Maintenance Hannover GmbH in Germany as VP Commercial – Engine Pool. Stephan has a degree in Law & Commerce from the University of Johannesburg, South Africa.

Dilip Mendis joined Amentum on 18th June. He holds a degree in Bachelor Business majoring in Accountancy (Queensland University of Technology, Australia). He is currently completing his CPA qualification. Dilip comes to Amentum with 5 years experience in the Banking & Finance industry having worked in Sri Lanka, United Kingdom and Australia.

Marie Ryan joined Amentum on 23rd June from Global Aviation Asset Management where she was a financial modeller. Marie has several years experience in financial markets having held management roles internationally in London and Melbourne, as well as Dublin. She has a Bachelor of Business Studies majoring in Economics & Finance from University of Limerick and a Masters in Financial Engineering from National University of Ireland (Maynooth).

Stephen McCullen joined Amentum on 14th July and brings over a decade of experience in commercial aviation, having been Director of Sales of a charter airline, Senior Analyst at Orix Aviation, as well as VP Sales and Marketing at Macquarie Aviation Capital. Stephen is a graduate of Trinity College (Dublin); he holds a Master's degree in European Economic and Public Affairs from The National University of Ireland, Dublin.